UNITED STATES' RESPONSE TO MOTION TO SCHEDULE ORAL ARGUMENT

COMES NOW the United States of America, by and through Richard G. Callahan, United States Attorney for the Eastern District of Missouri, and John T Davis, Assistant United States Attorney for said District, and for its response to defendant Thomas Anderson, Jr.'s motion to schedule oral argument states as follows:

The Government does not believe that oral argument is necessary in this case. The Court has heard two days' worth of testimony and the parties have fully briefed the issues on two separate occasions. The issues raised in the motion for inquiry and motion to dismiss indictment can be addressed by review of the record, the parties' extensive briefings and application of existing law.

Respectfully submitted,

RICHARD G. CALLAHAN
United States Attorney
